The above-captioned case was recently continued and scheduled for a preliminary hearing/arraignment on December 8, 2023 at 10:30 am to allow additional time for the parties to engage in discussions about potential resolution prior to Indictment, for defense to review discovery, and for Pretrial Services to complete its full CAP assessment. Since the filing of the last stipulation, defense counsel has encountered a conflict due to travel out of the area. Thus, the parties request that the December 8, 2023 hearing be continued one week to December 15, 2023.

The parties represent that good cause exists and therefore agree to extend the deadlines for a preliminary hearing under Rule 5.1(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and exclude time under the "Speedy Indictment" provisions of the Speedy Trial Act. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(b). Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate and agree to a new hearing date on December 15, 2023, for preliminary hearing or arraignment. The parties also stipulate and agree to request that the time

1 between December 8, 2023 and December 15, 2023 be excluded to facilitate discussions related to
2 resolution prior to Indictment, and for effective preparation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

11 ORDER

13 The above-entitled matter is currently scheduled for preliminary hearing/arraignment on 14 December 8, 2023, at 10:30 am. The parties are requesting a continuance to December 15, 2023.
15 The parties are seeking this continuance in order to engage in discussions about potential resolution
16 of this matter prior to Indictment, for defense counsel to review discovery that has been produced,
17 and for Pretrial Services to complete its full CAP assessment. With the consent of the United States,
18 and taking into account the public interest in the prompt disposition of criminal cases, the court sets
19 the preliminary hearing to the date set forth below, and based on parties' showing of good cause,
20 finds good cause for extending the time limits for a preliminary hearing under Federal Rule of 21 Criminal Procedure 5.1 and for extending the 30-day time period for an indictment under the 22 Speedy Trial Act (based on the exclusions set forth above). See Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1; 18 U.S.C. §
23 3161(b).
24

25 The parties have agreed to waive and exclude time for the preliminary hearing under the 26 Speedy Trial Act. The government has no objection to this proposed continuance. Therefore, for 27 good cause shown the hearing currently scheduled on December 8, 2023 shall be vacated. The 28

1 matter shall be continued until December 15, 2023. The time shall be excluded from the running of
2 the speedy trial clock for effective preparation of counsel under U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.
